The reasons for choosing the course in Sanatan Hindu Studies are as follows.

1) Sanatan means eternal and timeless. And, to study about this eternal and timeless duty in systematic manner, I want to enroll in this course of Sanatan Hindu Studies at Nalanda University.

2) In this course, we have the opportunity to study the collection of four Vedas or Samhitas that is believed to be written by Mantradrastas and not by humans. These four Vedas are Rig Veda, Yajur Veda, Sam Veda, Atharva Veda.

3) While the Vedas are associated with the law of karma, the Upanishads are associated with the path of knowledge. And, to study about these rudimentary concepts, I want to register in this course.

4) In addition to the Vedas and Upanishads, we also get the opportunity to study about epic literature i.e. the Ramayana and the Mahabharata and puranic literature as well. Therefore, in this course, we have the opportunity to learn and visualize the Sanatana Hindu literature from C.1500 BCE to C.200 AD.

5) This course is comprised of spirituality, philosophy and consciousness in religious literature. And, to obtain these knowledge and wisdom, I want to get admission in this course.

This course reflect not only the religious aspect but also the philosophical and spiritual aspects of Indian subcontinent.

Philosophy in India is essentially spiritual. And, it is the intense spirituality of India that has enabled the Indian civilization to resist the ravages of time and the accidents of history.

7) Sanatan Hindu literature has influenced the Indian philosophical system in one way or another.

Sankhya, Yoga, Nyaya, Vaisesika, Mimamsa and Vedanta schools are orthodox (Astika) because they accept the authority of the Vedas. And, Carvaka, Buddhism and Jainism school are regarded as heterodox (Nastika) because they do not believe in the authority of the Vedas.

Hence, the ethics and philosophy of Sanatan Hindu is essential not only to reflect on the philosophy of India but also to know about the culture, tradition and society of India.

Therefore, I want to join in this course i.e. Sanatana Hindu Studies.
